

Author Linda L. Kruschke is a wife, mother, sister, daughter, aunt, and friend. All of those relationships benefit from the fact that she is also a follower of Jesus. She is a lawyer by vocation, but her Godly calling is as a poet and inspirational author. This is her first published book of poetry, but she has been blogging for over five years at <http://lindakruschke.wordpress.com>.

What others are saying about this small volume of poetry:

It won't take very many people to turn their lives around for this book of poetry to be a spiritual success and victory. It will go further than a few people - it is destined to reach many who are in depression and see no hope! Linda describes the depression so well – but she goes way beyond and gives the Answer, the Source of Healing!

Reading through Linda's poetry is not a matter of mere lines. Every poem requires a deep breath and a substantial pause.

Leanne Forster, Olympia, Washington

Never underestimate the sheer power of poetry. It is formidable. Linda knows this, and she has compiled this book from direct experience. And that is remarkable.
